

Ceremonial, Tribute, or Eulogy speeches

Whether the focus is a person, a group of people, or an object (satire) its characteristics are:

- admiration and respect
- a focus on positive qualities: perseverance, dedication, humility, compassion, honesty, trustworthiness, loyalty, sacrifice, service, kindness, humor ...
- highlighting accomplishments and the difficulties overcome to achieve them
- a reflection on the positive impact and contribution of the focal group or person on the lives of others
- grateful acknowledgment of what we can learn from their example to take into the future

Remember to include:

1. At least one anecdote
2. Anaphora - repetition at the beginning of lines
3. Epistrophe - repetition at the end of lines
4. Ethos - the right and/or moral thing to do
5. Pathos - emotion, touching
6. Logos - logic. facts